Re: Cheung v. Aptorum Group Limited et al.
Case 2:24-cv-09969-VSB

Dear Judge Wang:

The conference is ADJOURNED sine die. The parties' application to appear remotely is DENIED. The parties are directed to meet and confer and file a letter on the docket by April 18, 2025, proposing three dates and times during the weeks of May 12 and May 19 when all counsel are available for an in-person conference.

SO ORDERED.

Our office represents Defendants Aptorum Group Limited and Ian Huen (collectively, the "Defendants") in the above-referenced action. Pursuant to Rule III(a) of Your Honor's Individual Practices in Civil Cases, the undersigned writes jointly on behalf of Defendants and Plaintiff (collectively, the "Parties") to request that the Initial Pretrial Conference currently scheduled for April 22, 2025, at 2:00 pm, be conducted remotely via telephone or video. See Docket Entry ("D.E.") 13. The undersigned is based in South Florida and lead counsel for Plaintiff (Mr. Wang) is scheduled to be on the West Coast on April 22 due to a long-scheduled business trip.

The Parties conducted their Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f) Conference on Tuesday, April 1, 2025, and have been able to amicably draft a proposed scheduling order. The Parties do not anticipate the need for a protracted conference. As such, the undersigned respectfully requests on behalf of the Parties that they be allowed to appear at the Initial Pretrial Conference remotely to preserve costs and travel expenses. The undersigned, along with Mr. Wang, thank the Court for its attention in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
